Protective Services Social Service Manager

Fairfield County Job and Family Services has an exciting opportunity for a Social Service Manager in the Protective Services department. The Social Service Manager will oversee supervisory and case service staff, which may include Intake/Assessment, Ongoing/Post-Assessment, Parenting Services, and/or Adult Protective Services. This position will assign casework and monitor case progress, provide oversight for cases, and assist in the development, implementation, modification, and evaluation of existing and new agency programs and services.

Applicants must have a bachelors degree in behavioral science, social science, or related field, as well as two years experience in a similar supervisory/managerial position. Previous child/adult protection experience and an advanced degree is highly preferred.

Starting salary for the position is $52,228. Fairfield County offers an excellent benefits package, including paid time off, affordable health insurance, and tuition reimbursement. Fairfield County participates in the Ohio Public Employee's Retirement System.

Applicants must apply online and attach a resume and cover letter that clearly demonstrates their experience and educational qualifications, as well as professional references.
