

CHILD WELFARE CASEWORKER – TRAINING UNIT

Mahoning County Children Services is currently accepting applications for full-time Child Welfare Caseworkers in the Training Unit

Qualifications: Bachelor's Degree in Social Work or a related field required. Participate in minimum annual State required training hours and comply with all Local, State, and Federal requirements of this position. Working knowledge of personal computer to create, edit/revise, store and purge documents using windows-based applications and state data systems. Must have valid Ohio driver's license, state minimum automobile insurance, and car available at all times.

Job Responsibilities include, but are not limited to: Training, both classroom style and "hands on" while in training. Participates in worker shadowing, as well as limited casework services to families. Attends court hearings and learns to prepare for necessary court involvement. Becomes familiar with all areas of child and family development and educates parents regarding these areas. Provides intensive casework services to parents and to their children who are deemed to be at risk of abuse, neglect, dependency. Level of service and degree of intensity will vary as the trainee moves through the agency training rotation. Will be involved in emergency services, ongoing services, resource services, and group home services, and all the duties of those positions as outlined in their individual job descriptions and as deemed appropriate by the supervisor. Provides transportation to clients as needed. Responds to crisis situations during beeper coverage. Completes all required paperwork, maintains case records based upon agency standards. Attends and participates in supervisory conferences, meetings as required.

Benefits include hourly rate of $16.20; paid sick leave, vacation, personal time and holidays; OPERS; cell phone stipend; health, dental, prescription, optical and life insurance; on-call pay; flex hours.

We are an equal opportunity employer

Application must accompany resume and may be downloaded from our website (www.mahoningkids.org). Email completed application & resume to: Susan Babinec, Human Resource Manager, Mahoning County Children Services * 222 W. Federal Street, Youngstown, OH 44503 * Email: Susan.Babinec@jfs.ohio.gov