

Accepting Applications

Deputy Director of Programs (Job posting #126597)

Full-time, exempt, senior management position with overall responsibility for service delivery and evaluation of quality child protective services and prevention programming. Responsibilities include management of mid-level program supervisors. Oversees recruitment, hiring, development, and evaluation for all program staff. Collaborates with community service providers and local stakeholders. Represents the agency on state or regional work groups or initiatives.

Master's degree in Social Work, public administration or related field, with appropriate licensure preferred. Bachelor's degree in social work or related field, driver's license and auto insurance required. Eight (8) years supervisory experience in the child welfare field, previous responsibility relating to data management and program development.

Apply via www.athenschilchildrenservices.com/pages/employment-opportunities-4

EOE/M/F/D/V & TIC Employer.
Accepting applications until filled.

ACCS seeks top-tier talent to continue the commitment of Protecting Children, Strengthening Families & Securing Futures.
