

Fairfield County Job and Family Services wants YOU to join our team. We have an exciting opportunity for a Case Worker in Training position which falls within our Child Protective Services Department. This position is the first step of a progressive training model to prepare you to excel in our agency. Our training model includes an initial orientation and hands on experience in the field of Child Welfare. This model sets you up for success and the ability to assume a Child Welfare Social Service Worker position within the agency.

A Child Welfare Social Service Worker manages a caseload of children and families. They may make the initial investigation or provide ongoing support and resources to families to ensure child safety and well-being.

Candidates must possess a bachelor's degree in Social Work or a related field. Starting salary for the Case Worker in Training position is $41,546 and generally will quickly increase to $47,486. This is dependent upon the completion of the training program and movement into a caseworker vacancy.

Fairfield County offers an excellent benefits package, including paid time off, affordable health insurance, and tuition reimbursement just to name a few! Fairfield County participates in the Ohio Public Employee's Retirement System.
